

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Rosary
Cathedral:

Happy Mother's Day to all who are called to this special role in life! During one of the many Cathedral tours I give to school children in the diocese, the thought has come to mind of the number of images of the Blessed Virgin Mary that are captured in the art of our Cathedral. One of my favorites is the sculpted image of Mary and a young Jesus at the shrine altar on the parking lot side. Mary has a serene smile on her face and a tender appearance as her son Jesus is clearly the focus and import of the sculpture.

Mother's often portray that image. That is, putting their children before themselves. I am awed by the number of mother's today who expend selfless amounts of time and energy in supporting and promoting their children, in addition to the professional careers they hold. Sporting events, extra-curricular activities in school and out of school are too numerous to mention. In most cases, Mom's are always there.

Our prayers this weekend take on a spirit of gratitude for the presence of Mother's in our life. We also include in our prayer this weekend those situations where Mom's feel used or are unappreciated. There may be situations where Mother's are victimized by verbal, emotional and physical abuse by the members of their families. Despite these experiences, the church community expresses its thanks for all you do.

God Bless You!

Father Singler

Seventy-five percent of any funds contributed at this point in time will now come back to the parish. There are a number of parish households that have not yet made a pledge contribution. We need your help. Please use the ACA envelopes provided at the ends of the pews and mail your contribution directly in the self-addressed envelope. Be sure to include "Rosary Cathedral" on the line provided for the parish. No gift is too small. Thank you for joining us in this crucial effort.
