

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Rosary Cathedral:

The close of the Christmas holiday this weekend prompts me to express a special word of gratitude to all who made our liturgical celebrations at Rosary Cathedral memorable and prayerful. For the planning, set-up, rehearsals and expenditure of time and energy to beautify our spiritual home this year, I am sincerely grateful.

On a more personal note, I ask your prayers for my father who will be undergoing open heart surgery at the Cleveland Clinic on Monday, January 8. I will be away from the Cathedral campus to attend to his spiritual needs this week. I will be returning to the Cathedral for weekend masses. My mother will be undergoing back surgery on Tuesday, January 16 in Sandusky. So, there will be two weeks that will require my absence from the parish. Rest assured there will be several priests covering in my absence.

As we enter these winter days of 2007, my prayer is that prosperity, good health and happiness will be abundant. May God bless Rosary Cathedral and all who come here to celebrate their faith in God.

Prayerfully yours,
Father Singler

READINGS FOR TODAY

We are called, like the magi, to keep looking for God in our lives. We ask God's forgiveness for the times we have given up.

In the First Reading, Isaiah 60:1-6

A prophet has wonderful news for a weary people. The light of God shines on them and the nations of the world draw near to worship.

In the Second Reading, Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Paul speaks of a mystery revealed to him. Gentiles are called to be members with the Jews in the body of Christ.

In the Gospel, Matthew 2:1-12

Wise men seek the newborn king of the Jews to pay him homage with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Next week's Readings:

January 14, 2007 – Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Isaiah 62:1-5

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Gospel John 2:1-11

A Family Perspective: The Magi looked first in Jerusalem and Herod's palace but didn't find Jesus until "they entered a home." Like the Magi we often look for God and fulfillment in the wrong places only to discover that God is waiting for us in the loving acceptance of our home.
