

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Rosary Cathedral:

Happy Easter to one and all! The great joy in the soul of the Church this Easter day is the triumph of good over evil. Christ – God who came to us in the flesh – has once and for all redeemed the original fall of Adam so that we might be given the grace and opportunity to share in the promise of new life. We celebrate a great mystery this Easter day and the profound fact that this annual rally of the entire Church on earth unites us uniquely with the Church in heaven.

As in past Easter observances, Rosary Cathedral continues to live in the spirit of the Risen Lord. We live this joy from many perspectives, but most aptly as a worshipping community. We welcome those who are visiting the Cathedral campus this weekend, those who have not been connected to a Catholic faith community with regularity. We welcome those who are seeking a faith to profess and those who simply stand in awe and respect to the beauty of God in their lives.

On this Easter day, in gratitude for the many blessings and graces bestowed upon the Cathedral parish community, a special Easter dinner is being served to anyone in need of a hot meal or anyone who would otherwise be alone this day of our Lord's resurrection from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM in Msgr. Smith Auditorium. A team of parishioners and others from the metro Toledo area have prepared for this service event for many weeks. I am particularly grateful to Deacon Bill Keran who listened carefully to an idea taken to heart and made it become reality; to those who supported this event with their financial support and underwriting; and those who sacrificed their time and energy to be with their own family members to prepare the food and serve God's special ones.

As we begin the observance of 50 days of Easter, it is my firm hope and prayer that the mystery of Christ's resurrection will dwell in every heart as a sign and promise of God's gracious love. May the shadow of doubt and despair that enters any heart be brightened and warmed by the Risen Lord who died that we might have life with him forever.

Faithfully yours in the Risen Lord,
Father Charles E. Singler
Rector

READINGS FOR TODAY

The stone has been rolled away from the tomb. Inside, the burial cloths are folded, but death is nowhere to be found. Still, we fail to live our lives in ways that demonstrate we believe the Easter good news.

In the First Reading, Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter preaches for the first time to a gentile audience. The Easter message must reach all the nations of the world.

In the Second Reading, Colossians 3:1-4

Paul tells us to get rid of corrupting influences. We are to be inspired by Christ's generous sacrifice and live authentic Christian lives.

In the Gospel, John 20:1-9

Peter and the beloved disciple run to the tomb. They look inside and find it empty, but only the beloved disciple saw and believed.

Next week's Readings April 23, 2006

Second Sunday of Easter – Divine Mercy Sunday

First Reading	Acts 4:32-35
Second Reading	1 John 5:1-6
Gospel	John 20:19-31

Alleluia

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: In today's gospel, Mary, Peter and John did a lot of running looking for Jesus. The Easter message is: we don't need to run around to find Jesus. Wherever you experience forgiveness and sacrificial love, you find the Resurrected Lord. Alleluia.

Answering God's Call... In his resurrection, Jesus knows the joy that comes from pouring out one's life for God and others. He wishes to share this joy in a special way with those he calls to a life of service in the Church. Could it be God is calling you to die to self and live for others as a sister, priest, deacon or brother? If not you, then who? For more information: www.toledovocations.com

Successful Strategies for Stepfamily Living Workshops

Stepfamilies, created from second marriages, bring special issues to deal with around parenting and spousing. An understanding of their unique differences can help make second marriages healthier and happier. Come, listen, question and learn.
