

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Rosary Cathedral:

As our liturgical season of high and solemn feasts now gives way to the slower summer pace of Ordinary Time, our civic calendar finds us observing Father's Day this weekend. Congratulations to all Dad's in our Cathedral community! While much of my understanding of the noble call of fatherhood relies on the observations I have of those who live this vocation, I must say that the challenges today seem more intense and involved. It seems to me that parents involve themselves more in the extra-curricular activities of their children. Whenever I have the opportunity to visit with my parents in Sandusky, I try to make an effort to see my siblings and their families. Always, without a doubt, they never seem to be home. It usually comes in a later conversation that their absence at home was due to a sporting event they were attending in support of one of my nieces or nephews.

My youngest brother Scott is a great Dad to his three children. I am in awe of the time he expends, as does his wife Ann, to be with his children. Whether it is baseball, swimming, ballet, gymnastics or school related events, he always seems to find time in the midst of a very busy schedule traveling all over the Midwest to make the extracurricular events involving his children a priority. I have to think that such an attitude will have a lasting effect on them when they grow into adulthood.

On the other side of the coin, witnessing Dad's who are involved and interactive with their children calls to mind the situations in our culture today that lack parental presence. Imagine the void felt when a parent never offers affirmation, support and encouragement to their child. The void can only encourage doubt and a lack of self-esteem. Somehow God, the Father of us all, provides a special grace to those in this predicament.

Our prayer on this Father's Day 2007 is that God's blessing come upon all who are called to this noble task. Our liturgy offers us this prayer today: "Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect."

Sincerely in Christ,
Father Singler

Rosary Cathedral Parish Office would like to extend a very Happy and Blessed Father's Day to all Fathers.

Paul insists that we are saved by faith in Christ, not by works of the law. In baptism we were united to the crucified and risen Christ, and now he lives in us.

Jesus teaches a powerful lesson about the connection between love and forgiveness.

Peter's Pence 2007 Collection

The theme for this year's Collection is Let us make sure that none of God's children ever feels alone. The theme is based on a September 2006 homily given by Pope Benedict XVI, in which he explained how those who are baptized create one family of believers who are never alone. Your contribution to the Peter's Pence Collection on the weekend of June 30-July 1, 2007, allows the Holy Father to respond with timely and effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters throughout the world. Thus, in solidarity with the Pope, we Catholics participate in works of goodness that distinguish us as followers of the Gospel.
