

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Rosary Cathedral:

We come to the last weekend of October noticing the change of color taking place on the landscape of Northwest Ohio. It is the season of fall settling in even more only to give way to barren trees and colder temperatures we come to know as winter. This annual transformation signals for us one of the facts about natural life: we are born to die. The reality is not intended to scare us, but to help us understand our origin and destiny. As believers in Jesus Christ, we know that the beginning and end of our life finds its place in the God who created us.

The month of November that we commence this week with the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls provides for us an opportunity to call to mind those women and men who have gone before us in time. Some we consider blood-line relatives, others acquaintances in faith, and still others people we have never known. We consider their lives on this earth, their heroic witness to the Christian faith and the way in which God's ever-present love sustained their journey through life. We ponder our own journey this time of year in light of the path taken by those who have gone before us. Inspired by their witness, we align our lives anew with God waiting, living and longing for the prize they now experience in eternity.

Let the month of all saints and all souls we begin this week be a time of remembrance. We thank God for the witness of those who have gone before us in time and ask that from eternity's perspective they might guide and prompt us through our mortal life toward the prize of heaven.

As a parish, we remember all who have died this past year, our family members, friends and fellow parishioners. We extend our prayers especially to their families who mourn their passing. May God grant them eternal rest. May perpetual light shine upon them.

Prayerfully yours,
Father Singler

A wise teacher talks about the power of prayer, especially prayer that comes from a humble heart.

In the Second Reading, 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

We hear Paul speak about his trial. He expects to be condemned to death. He rejoices that he has remained faithful to Christ and that the trial has been another opportunity for proclaiming the gospel.

In the Gospel, Luke 18:9-14

Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee and tax collector. It warns us that our preconceived ideas about who will or will not be saved might not coincide with God's views.

BOOK OF MEMORY

Next weekend and during the entire month of November Cathedral parishioners and friends may inscribe the names of their deceased loved ones in the Book of Memory which will be located at the parking lot entrance of the Cathedral. November is the month of remembering all souls. The Easter Candle is placed next to the Book of Memory and is lit during November weekend Masses as a sign and reminder of the prayers offered by the Church for those who have gone before us in death to the Lord. Please remember our deceased parishioners who have died this past year and their families mourning their loss.

Reminder to set your clocks back 1 hour next Saturday, November 3, 2007, before you retire for the evening as the time changes at 2:00 AM on Sunday, November 4th.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK AT ALL MASSES NEXT WEEKEND

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be offered to those who wish to be anointed at all weekend Masses next weekend, November 3 & 4. FIRST FRIDAY EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be held on Friday, November 2, 2007 in the Bishop's Daily Mass Chapel at Rosary Cathedral. Exposition will follow the 7AM morning Mass and will conclude with a brief benediction service at 12NOON. Liturgical protocol requires that a person or persons maintain a prayer vigil before the Blessed Sacrament when it is exposed for adoration. To be able to schedule exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, we will need the assistance of people to pray during the morning hours every first Friday. If you are willing and able to spend time in prayer before our Eucharistic Lord each first Friday, please call the Parish Office today and indicate your time of prayer.

November National Adoption Month

Adoption Builds Families. The Family Connections Department of Catholic Charities works with domestic and international adoptions everyday.
